

Law Library Accessibility Policy

The Harris County Robert W. Hainsworth Law Library is committed to promoting open and equal access to justice for all and does not discriminate against individuals with disabilities. Law Library programs and services comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act \(ADA\) and are in accordance with recommendations provided by the American Library Association \(ALA\) and the Harris County ADA Coordinator. Reasonable accommodations for individuals with disabilities are available by request.

Accommodation Requests

If accommodation is required to access Law Library services or resources, accommodation requests must be submitted to the Harris County ADA Coordinator for approval. All accommodation requests must be submitted to the ADA Coordinator at least three (3) business days before the expected visit to the Law Library. Please contact the ADA Coordinator for information on how to acquire an accommodation request form.

If you would like to make a complaint alleging discrimination prohibited by the ADA by a Harris County public entity, contact the Harris County ADA Coordinator for information about completing an ADA grievance form.
